

Sale of any of the following goods and/or services shall be deemed to be prohibited:

1. Artefacts, culturally valuable art and historical objects located/stored at the country of the consumer;
2. Used cosmetics;
3. Counterfeit currency, coins and stamps;
4. Poisons, drugs and drug paraphernalia, narcotic or drug-like substances, legal substances formulas and descriptions;
5. Herbs, noxious weeds and prohibited seeds;
6. Tobacco products;
7. Medical products and medicines, prescription drugs, pills, medications and their components with the exception of dietary supplements;
8. Electronic devices including equipment deemed unlawful by the consumer's country of residence (for example cable TV descramblers, radar scanners, and traffic signal control devices, surveillance equipment, wiretapping devices, and telephone bugging devices.
9. Modchips (devices used to bypass technical capabilities for copyright protection in many popular game devices, including game consoles, in order to run copies of licensed games and applications and proprietary programs), game emulators, boot disks and devices;
10. Military products, firearms, weapons, guns, knives, pepper spray, replicas and stun guns with the exception of sports equipment (bows for sports shooting, paintball guns, etc.). Military products are also understood as any goods for police (militia) and departments associated with representatives of state power;
11. Government documents, IDs, licenses, uniform and other goods or any police (militia) items;
12. Dangerous and hazardous goods, perishable or restricted items (for example explosives, radioactive materials, toxic substances, batteries, Freon);
13. Goods / services that are contrary to the public interest, principles of humanity, ethics and morality. (For example, human organs and remains);
14. Items, encouraging illegal activity or links to items, promoting others to engage in illegal activity;
15. Locksmithing devices;
16. Bulk or unsolicited mail lists or lists that contain personal data;
17. Offensive Material (items that promote or glorify hatred, violence, racial or religious intolerance, nazi memorabilia, offensive goods or materials), activities that incite national and religious discord;
18. Child pornography, and other sexually suggestive materials involving minors; escort or prostitution services, other adult content prohibited by payment system rules;
19. Slot machines, including their analogues and spare parts;
20. Stolen property and property with removed serial numbers;
21. Illegal /piracy audio or video recordings, activities that infringe on copyright (digital content (music, videos, and/or software);
22. File storages (cyberlockers), which allows to search for uploaded content by other users and charging the user for removing restrictions on download speed
23. Counterfeit or infringing goods, designer (branded) products, replicas, counterfeit medicines, etc.);

24. Goods, having no use value, including those with expired date;
25. Timeshares;
26. Content that contains violence or perversions;
27. Auctions or trading systems, allowing its participants to perform activities, excluding actual transfer of goods, services or other products, bearing a use value, while all participants must pay regardless of whether they win or not;
28. Financial or payment instruments, that do not ensure proper KYC procedures and customers identification for the purposes of fighting illicit trafficking, financial fraud, illegal proceeds and money laundering (shell banks/companies);
29. Attraction of individuals' funds on a large scale, in which the income is paid at the expense of borrowed funds of other individuals in the absence of investment and (or) other legitimate business activity related to the use of borrowed funds in the amount commensurate with the volume of borrowed money funds (investment and financial "pyramids");
30. Services in which there are signs of fraud / deception. (Including network marketing, exorcism, 25th frame technology, dubious weight loss techniques, paid sports predictions, etc.).
31. Acquisition, exchange and sale of crypto currency (exchange, wallets, etc. services), other analogues of virtual currencies and other quasi-cash; attraction of investments in the form of sale to investors a fixed number of new units of cryptocurrency (ICO and its options);
32. Services of exchange offices (including services positioned as an exchange of funds for other financial instruments) that violate the legislation, except for the legitimate implementation of transactions by authorized banks provided by the legislation;
33. Activities that may be misleading or deceiving for the buyer (goods with a short period of free testing and with no opportunity to reject the goods; delivery of the buyer's personal data to a third party; the need for the holder's express rejection of extra services or goods at the website; and/or fraudulent fundraising or activities that imitate provision with governmental services; or activities of a website that are thought to be conducted with celebrities' approval or participation, etc.);
34. Waste generated in the process of chemical weapons destruction;
35. Museum objects and museum collections;
36. Precious metals, precious stones in nuggets;
37. Pesticides characterized by an increased probability of a negative effect on people's health and the environment, this probability confirmed by registration tests of pesticides and agrochemicals;
38. Counterfeit medical and dental devices that have not been approved by regulators or whose life has expired, such as condoms, intravascular catheters, implants for breasts and other body parts, devices and equipment for use by hospitals, doctors, and dentists, diagnostic kits for tests for HIV, diabetes mellitus and pregnancy, etc.; Other goods and services whose sales violate requirements of laws;
39. Financing of terrorism and extremist activities;
40. Lotteries (except for state ones);
41. Weapons of mass destruction proliferation financing.
42. Slave trade and human trafficking.

43. Online casinos;
44. Bookmakers, operating without a license;
45. Activities of brokers in financial markets and forex dealers, carried out without a license;
46. Marketplaces of game items and / or skins, on which the deposit is replenished to participate in activities with elements of gambling, such as slots, roulettes, etc., so-called "Children's casinos";
47. Activities of pseudo-credit brokers providing loan selection information services that do not correspond to their offer;
48. Other prohibited items and services (Seller is not allowed to sell or require sexual services and any other services illegal)

Also, it is not allowed to serve companies that are in prohibitive lists of regulating bodies.